

Marcus Moshapalo joins Net#work BBDO as ECD

Net#work BBDO has appointed Marcus Moshapalo as executive creative director from 1 September 2023, as the driving force behind its partners' creative ambitions.

Marcus Moshapalo has been appointed executive creative director. Source: Supplied.

With over 20 years' experience, pegged by local and international accolades, Moshapalo's crafted ability to captivate audiences by intercepting to the mood of the moment, continues to break new ground.

Learning new things

"I'm eager to contribute to Net#work BBDO's legacy as a pioneer," says Mashapalo. "Together with my team, I'm committed to learn new things, to do important work, and bring our partners' visions to life - for life."

During his career, Moshapalo has led iconic local and international brands' creative campaigns – across banking, entertainment, fast-moving consumer goods, motoring, telecommunications, and public awareness and government communication campaigns. And has recently been named as one of the Loeries 2023 judges in the Print, Radio, Crafts, SA Non-English category.

