

Win a trip to Switzerland with Chocolat Frey

If you're a Pick n Pay Smart Shopper, Chocolat Frey is giving one family of four the chance to win a trip to the city of Lucerne, in the heart of Switzerland, where they will spend five nights taking in all the magnificent beauty, as well as a visit to the Chocolat Frey factory where they can observe the making of high-quality, authentic Swiss chocolate.

For over 125 years, Chocolat Frey products have exclusively been made in Switzerland and sold throughout the world. Frey was founded by two brothers, Robert and Max Frey in 1887, whose passion for the finest chocolate products lives on today and is expressed in every single Chocolat Frey product. Offering unique taste experiences, the range comprises Frey's Milk, 78% Dark or Dark Lemon and Black Pepper luxury chocolate.

To enter, simply buy any Chocolat Frey product at selected Pick n Pay stores nationwide and swipe your Smart Shopper Card to stand a chance to win.

The competition closes on 26 July 2015. Terms and conditions apply. Find out more at www.picknpay.co.za/frey-competition.
