The concert set to kick off the festive season will feature over 50 of South Africa's hottest known and emerging hip-hop and amapiano headliners talent/ artists from both Cape Town and Johannesburg respectively.

Taking place at Paarden Eiland Park on 10 December, the show just surpassed 60% of tickets sold.

Bringing the same authentic vibe that emanated from the Joburg edition to the mother city this summer, this action-packed festival will not only showcase the diversities in the different popular music genres but will also feature various lifestyle elements existing within the 'culture,' including fashion and sport.

The University of Cotton Fest has also announced the Open Mic Night via social media, giving one talented emerging Cape Town-based artist a chance to perform at the festival next month. Entries are limited to the first 100 submissions with one winner being announced just prior to the show. With over 320 entries submitted in under 24 hours, the qualified faculty will select the Valedictorian.

Cotton Fest is coming to Cape Town!
