

SANParks offers Black Friday 40% discount on online reservations

The South African National Parks (SANParks) is offering a special discount as part of Black Friday on 27 November 2020. As part of the promotion, SANParks is offering a 40% discount for new reservations made via the online booking platform.

According to the acting head of communications, Reynold Thakhuli: “SANParks is excited to offer a discount on online bookings for accommodation, camping, trails and activities within our stable. The discount will apply to all online bookings made for accommodation, camping, trails and activities, for stays from 27 January to 18 March 2021, including weekends.”

Agulhas National Park

“Online booking for game drives and walks is limited to specific camps in Kruger National Park. Trails that can be booked online are the Otter Trail in Garden Route National Park and Kruger’s 4x4 trails, backpack trails and wilderness trails.”

The discount applies only to the cost of accommodation, camping, trails and/or activities. No discounts will be offered on conservation fees, Wild Card purchases, activities (not available on the SANParks online bookings platform), meals, etc. A 1% community levy will apply to discounted reservation costs.

The 40% discount offer is not available for Kgalagadi Transfrontier Park.
