New One Show Pencil

Top winners in The One Show 2023 received a dazzling new One Show Pencil modelled after the original Pencil designed by industry legend George Lois, whose son Luke Lois was on stage for the unveiling.

The new Pencil is larger than the traditional one, made of crystal surrounding a black metal core for Best of Show, and around a gold metal core for Best of Discipline and “of the Year” winners.

The new Pencil was created this year to mark The One Show’s 50th anniversary and will be presented from this point forward to the show’s top winners.

Most Gold Pencils

Globally, FCB New York won the most One Show Gold Pencils with 11, including 10 for McEnroe vs McEnroe on behalf of AB InBev/Michelob Ultra, and one with Wave Studios for Spotify Advertising A Song For Every CMO – Mastercard.

McEnroe vs McEnroe was the piece of work to win the most Golds this year.

One Show’s golden anniversary

Remarking on The One Show’s golden anniversary, Glenn Cole, chairman of The One Club and founder, creative chairman, 72andSunny, says, “In this business, you’re doing something right if you’re still relevant after 50 years. I’m thrilled that The One Show is vital at age 50, but I’m most proud that it is a purpose-driven non-profit that pours all proceeds into the betterment of the creative community. Let’s take it to 100.”

“The One Show is 50 years young, and we continually strive to push boundaries, remain relevant, and are constantly evolving as the industry does,” say Kevin Swanepoel, CEO, The One Club.

The One Show 2023 Global Creative Rankings will be announced on 24 May 2023.

A total of 20,166 pieces from 69 countries and regions were entered in The One Show 2023. Agencies, studios, brands, production companies and designers in 54 countries and regions were awarded 210 Gold Pencils, 200 Silver, 238 Bronze, and 1,172 Merits.
