

SA shopping centre body appoints new president

The South African Council of Shopping Centers (SACSC) has appointed Johannesburg businesswoman, Miss Julie Hillary, MD of Finlay, as its president.

As a successful player in the South African property industry, Miss Hillary says she will bring her years of experience to the position of president of the SACSC.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>