

Changing the way of doing business with African luxury brands

Africa is rich and abundant with incredible authentically African luxury brands and goods, yet the world struggles to find and connect with them. This raises the question - How do we do this?

Kevin Britz and Craig Page-Lee, hosts of Africa's leading Marketing Show – Lunchtime Marketing, exclusively on www.ebizradio.com are joined today by Grace Mumo, founder and CEO of Luxury Xclusives and the innovator that has just launched Africa's first truly 3D mall.

This one of a kind virtual mall lets you experience products and brands like never before across all digital devices.
