

ABN signs on three more broadcasters

The African Broadcast Network (ABN) has signed deals with three more broadcasters on the continent. The ABN will provide programming and assist with the development of Television Malawi, Television Rwanda and DESERT Entertainment Television of Namibia. Celebrating their first birthday, the ABN has estimated viewership figures of over 100 million in seven countries across the continent.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>