

Meet SA's Cannes Lions 2017 judges!

This year, nine South African creatives will serve on Cannes Lions' judging panels.

Cinemark has announce this year's list, who will be flying the South African flag in Cannes - all are regarded as industry experts with exceptional track records and join the 390 international judges at Cannes Lions 2017, says Motheo Matsau, chief of marketing and sales at Ster-Kinekor Theatres.

The process is predicted to be challenging, demanding and exhausting but, at the same time, exhilarating, informative and mind-blowing.
