

CASTECH Group awarded international engineering design contract

CASTECH Group (RSA) has been awarded an international engineering design contract for the design of various underground mine vehicle components. This contract is to run until the end of 2013 according to the New CEO for the CASTECH Group - Chris Stanley.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>