

Infinity Media Networks must reinstate employees, rules labour court

Fin24 reports that the Johannesburg Labour Court has ruled that Infinity Media Networks must reinstate employees that were fired with immediate effect.

Infinity Media Networks was in breach of a section of the Labour Relations Act according to the ruling.

Infinity Media Networks ran the Afro Worldview news channel that shut down in mid-August after its contract was terminated by pay-TV operator MultiChoice.

Read more on this story here.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>