

Kolisi joins Aquafresh as its All-in-One ambassador

South African national rugby team captain, Siya Kolisi, has teamed up with oral hygiene brand, Aquafresh, as its All-in-One ambassador to lead a nationwide campaign to inspire South Africans to reach their full potential.

Kolisi will launch the 'You Are All-In-One' campaign in January with the aim of helping others get the same level of confidence in themselves that he had through Aquafresh and reimagine the brand's social outreach programme.
