

Winning label design for Russian Bear Limited Edition

Edward Snell & Co has announced the winner of its label design competition for the Russian Bear Vodka's Limited Edition. Hylton Warburton received the most votes from the public following the release of the ten designs from local artists that made it into the semi-finals. The theme was 'Urban Expressions'. The label will be featured on the brand's next limited edition run.

For more, visit: https://www.bizcommunity.com