Drostdy-Hof has extended its Winemakers Collection with 3-litre slimpack its Chardonnay and Sauvignon Blanc from 2010 and its Merlot and Cabernet Sauvignon from 2009. The slimpack fits easily into a fridge door, it cools quickly and stays cooler for longer and because no air gets in, it keeps perfectly after the first glass is poured. The white wines in the slimpack sell for around R76 whilst the reds will cost about R84 in leading supermarkets.
