

WCFA expands global executive board

World Communication Forum Association (WCFA) has expanded its global executive board to ten members with the election of six new board members. The expanded board will be responsible for leading the association through the next phase of its expansion.

The association is led by international PR expert and author, Maxim Behar (Bulgaria), with three vice-Presidents, Solly Moeng from South Africa, Ganesh Chandrasekaran from India, and Portugal's Jon-Hans Coetzer.

The newly elected board members include Nurul-Maria Ashiquin from Malaysia, Dr. Clara Ly-Le from Vietnam and Iran's Mina Nazari, while India-based Yogesh Joshi will act as an external controller on key executive board matters.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>