

NGAGE Marketing wins best communications agency award

NGAGE Marketing has been named the Best Industrial Communications Agency - South Africa by MEA Markets at the 2020 edition of the MEA Business Awards. This is not the agency's first MEA Markets award, having won the Best Full-Service Communications Agency award at its 2018 edition.

NGAGE is a full-service agency with brands such as Afrox, Hatch, Cummins, Bosch, Paragon Group, and Goscor Group on their client base. "We are very proud of the #GreenTeam's achievements, and look forward to even more awards in the future," said co-founder Renay Tandy.
