

LG receives 21 CES 2017 Innovation Awards

LG Electronics received 21 CES 2017 Innovation Awards acknowledging its innovative efforts in a range of its products. The full list of LG's 2017 CES Innovation Award winners will be announced at a press conference to be held in Las Vegas early in the new year.

The awards are sponsored by the Consumer Technology Association (CTA™) and endorsed by the Industrial Designers Society of America. Every year, the recipients are selected by a panel of esteemed industry designers, engineers and journalists who judge submissions on a variety of criteria which examines user value, aesthetics, innovative design, quality and contributions to quality of life.
