

Marilyn Nel joins BMi Research

BMi Research appointed Marilyn Nel as its new research manager. She brings more than 10 years of market research experience to the role.

Nel will lead BMi Research's B2B market research department. She will take responsibility for building client relationships, guide clients through research projects, and oversee the research process on all projects.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>