

Football365 named Online Media of the Year

Football365 was named Online Media of the Year at the 2017 Football Supporters' Federation Awards, which was held in London earlier this week. The Football Supporters' Federation is the democratic organisation representing the rights of fans and articulating the views of football supporters.

Football365 received the accolade following a public vote and beat out contenders like OptaJoe, Copa90, Spencer FC, David Squires and uMAXit Football. Sports commentator Conor McNamara presented Football365's Sarah Winterburn and Matt Stead with the award.
