

Financial Mail Top Analyst Awards

The annual Financial Mail Top Analyst Awards 2015 was held at Inanda Club in Sandton on the afternoon of 27 May.

Sponsored by INET BFA in partnership with research company Intellidex, the prestigious event awarded South Africa's top analysts of the institutional stock broking industry. Top analysts were announced in more than 40 different research sectors and the best broking houses were named for sales, execution and overall output.

UBS South Africa walked away with the coveted Top Performing Firm Award. Other big winners included Macquarie First South, who had eight analysts awarded across different categories, while Renaissance Capital followed closely behind with five.

