

Teta donates PPE, learning resources to 57 rural schools across SA

The Transport Education Training Authority (Teta) donated personal protective equipment (PPE) and various learning resources to 57 rural schools across South Africa through its Adopt-A-School programme for 2020.

The programme was established to help schools in remote areas with teacher capacitation, learning resources, career guidance, and additional Stem-based subject classes.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>