

Change Story launches Educational NGO offering

Change Story, a provider of corporate business and project consulting services, today announced the launch of Change Story's Educational NGO offering. The new offering provides innovative and cost-effective change management, project management and strategic consulting to NGO clients facing large, complex educational project and programme implementations.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>