

IAS Board appoints Tebatso Masete as its director

The Independent Agency Search and Selection Company (IAS) announced that IAS project director, Tebatso Masete, has joined the IAS (Pty) Ltd board as a director.

Masete has recently returned to the IAS after five years where, during this time, she completed her postgraduate diploma in business management through Unisa. She also gained valuable experience in customer relationship management at Vumatel and project management at Wits Business School over that period.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>