

DJ p.H to headline L'Ormarins Queen's Plate Racing Festival After-Party

Top SA music maestro DJ p.H has been announced the headline act for the L'Ormarins Queen's Plate Racing Festival After-Party. The festival is set to take place at Kenilworth Racecourse in Cape Town, 5-6 January.

Having recently returned from a show in Europe, the 5FM DJ p.H said, "I'm really looking forward to a memorable day of races and an even better night of amazing music, courtesy of yours truly."

The L'Ormarins Queen's Plate Racing Festival will also see Roastin' Records – the forward-thinking record label, record store & DJ crew from Cape Town - blow guests away with their set earlier in the evening.

In addition to these entertainment acts, the L'Ormarins Queen's Plate Racing Festival will also honour its provenance with a Cape Minstrel parade just before the running of the L'Ormarins Queen's Plate race, where all eyes will be on the country's best thoroughbreds competing for the R1.5m purse.

Dates set for 2018 L'Ormarins Queen's Plate

7 Nov 2017

Tickets for the L'Ormarins Queen's Plate Racing Festival can be purchased on the Computicket website. The after-party will take place on Saturday, 6 January at 9pm.