

HalloCrazyWorld magazine launch

HalloCrazyWorld, an online travel magazine focusing on outbound youth travel, is launching its printed edition at the World Holiday & Travel Fair (meet the team at its stall on 19 - 21 June 2009 at the Coca-Cola Dome, Johannesburg, to get a copy). The aim is to provide clear and easily accessible information on a variety of destinations and leading service providers to young South Africans travelling or working abroad. The biannual printed magazine will be available every June and October, distributed by Magscene and available at CNA and Exclusive Books stores nationwide. Find out more at www.hallocrazyworld.com.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>