

Gavin Rajah shows off 80s-inspired collection at AFI Week

Gavin Rajah showcased his new 'Back to the Future' couture collection at the African Fashion International Fashion Week on 21 March 2018. The collection takes inspiration from the 1980s, including underground street culture, graffiti as art, and the power of fashion utilising art as a tool for activism.

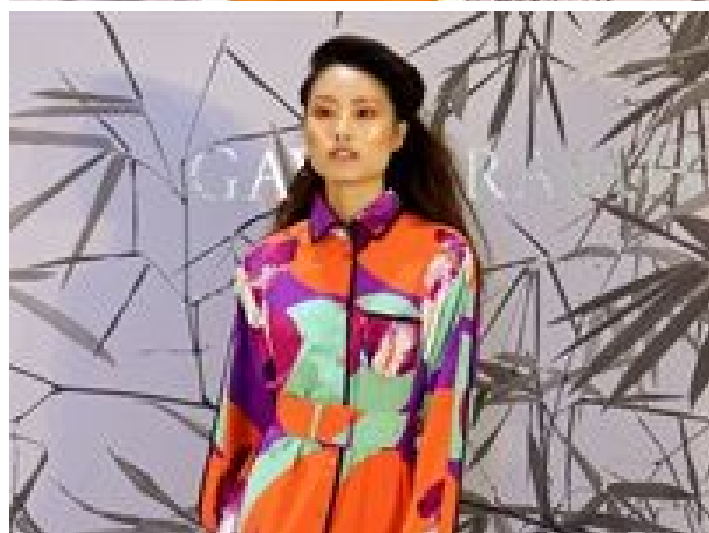

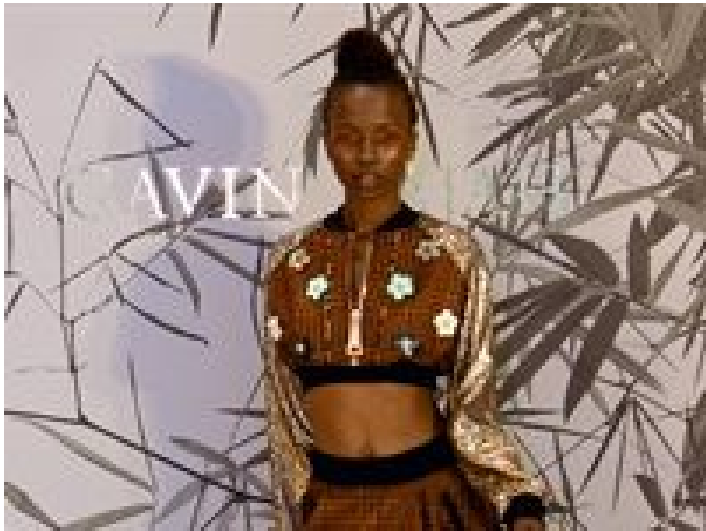

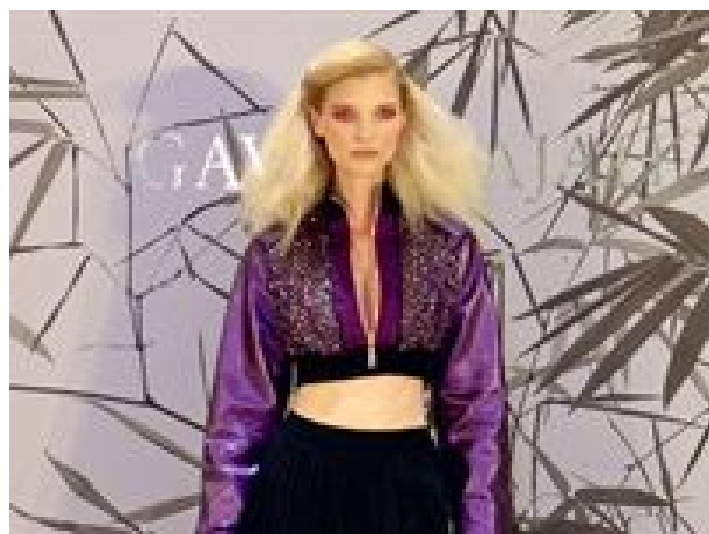

The collection contains pieces that display a combination of luxurious silk DeVore chiffons with vivid crepes mixed with PVC and types of vinyl; the collection can be deconstructed and worn as separates, or as a total look.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>