

Greytown re-elects President of Kwanalu

Andy Buchan has been re-elected as the president of Kwanalu, thus making it his third consecutive term of serving.

Buchan was unanimously elected by the Kwanalu board in October and is equipped with 22 years of experience in the farming industry.

Buchan has fulfilled a variety of roles in formal farming structures for the past 12 years.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>