Schalk Bezuidenhout returns to Baxter Theatre

Schalk Bezuidenhout returns to the Baxter Theatre in Cape Town with his one-man act, Second Language, on 21 and 22 October, due to popular demand.

The hilarious and award-winning stand-up comedian recently debuted the show at the Golden Arrow Studio Theatre to a sold out run.

"The Golden Arrow Studio run exceeded all my expectations. It was so lekker that the Baxter has invited me back to do another run of the show in October at the Main theatre, which is any comedian on my level's dream! Get tickets for 'Second Language' soon, you don't want to be that person who has to watch the show on DVD because you didn't get tickets. Did I mention that we're shooting a DVD?" adds Schalk.
This talented youngster brings his wild 'fro' to the stage as he explores his conservative upbringing in Kempton Park (Johannesburg) with his current liberal outlook on life.

Schalk Bezuidenhout is one of South Africa's best young comedians and has genuinely made an impact in the comedy world. In the few short years that he has been on the comedy scene, Schalk has won two Comics Choice Awards and has opened for Trevor Noah.

About Schalk Bezuidenhout

Bezuidenhout's personable style and true-to-life stories make watching him a unique experience.

He took his career like a fish to water and has had the opportunity to perform at great venues around the country with fellow comedians. On stage, his fun and energetic style appeals to people of all walks of life.

Apart from his Comics Choice Awards, Schalk is the 2012 winner of the Cape Town Graça Comedy Showdown, has performed at Blacks Only multiple times, the full run of Jive Cape Town Funny Festival in 2014, took part in Trevor Noah's NationWILD Tour in 2014 and 2015 and opened for Noah in 2015. He also received the KKNK Kanna Award for Best Up and Coming Artist in 2015 and recorded his own Comedy Central Special in the same year.

Ticket details

Tickets cost R100 and are available through Computicket.

For more, visit: https://www.bizcommunity.com