

Mother of All Parties' local and international line-up announced

Three international acts, as well as the complete local line-up, have been announced for this year's Mother of All Parties to be held on 2 July at the Growthpoint Kings Park Stadium, Durban.

The mixed house and hip hop performances will take place on three stages at the concert.

International acts

American artist Tinashe is to join the line-up. Having started her career at the young age of three, this American born with Zimbabwean roots is no stranger to the entertainment industry. The multitasking performer sings, models, acts, produces and dances.

Also confirmed is Grammy award winning rapper and US actress Eve, as well as multi-platinum-selling artist Chris Brown.

The local line-up

BET nominated rapper Cassper Nyovest together with 'Leader of the New School' Riky Ricky, Zakwe, producer Anatii, as well as award winners Emtee and Fifi Cooper will perform at the concert.

DJs the KOTW will also share the stage with Mabala Noise's own Chynaman, Du Boiz, Jay Spitter, DJ Bongz, Ms Jones and L'vovo.

The DJU Stage will feature DJ Oskido, DJ Fresh, Vinny Da Vinci, Greg Maloka and Christos Katsaitis.

Finally, the Detroit hip hop outfit, Slum Village, has also been confirmed.

The Mother of All Parties, the annual closing party for the SA Music Conference, is brought to South Africa by Mabala Noise Entertainment, DJU and BACK TO THE OLDSKOOL in association with Channel O and the City of Durban.

Ticket prices:

Golden Circle: R750

General Access: R450

VIP Lounge packages: R1,800

VIP Package includes a fully staffed facility including dedicated waitresses, hostesses, bar staff and senior management in addition to the following:

- On field VIP parking
- VIP ticket with access to VIP lounge area
- Private chute entrance
- VIP luxury lounge and décor
- Private bespoke cash bar facilities
- Light snacks and platters
- Private toilet and bathroom facilities

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>