

Last 3 Kirstenbosch Summer Sunset Concerts postponed

Kirstenbosch Summer Sunset Concerts has postponed its last three shows after President Cyril Ramphosa declared the coronavirus or Covid-19 a national disaster.

The Pumeza Matshikiza and Cape Town Opera show has been postponed from 22 March 2020 to summer 2021 (date TBC). Jeremy Loops – which set to perform on 29 March 2020 – will now perform on 29 November 2020. Andrew Young and Don Vino's concert has been postponed from 5 April 2020 to summer 2021 (date TBC).

“ #KBRocks update: @JeremyLoops postponed from 29 March 2020 to 29 November 2020. #OMmusic4u #Coronavirussouthafrica pic.twitter.com/GUFoRPptBp— Kirstenbosch (@KirstenboschNBG) March 17, 2020 ”

Ticket-holders will receive communication via Webtickets regarding the new dates as well as their refund options. Kirstenbosch will also continue to monitor the Covid-19 outbreak and act in accordance with best practice recommendations to ensure the safety and well-being of our guests, staff and stakeholders.

2019/2020 Kirstenbosch Summer Sunset Concerts lineup announced

13 Nov 2019

“The Kirstenbosch Summer Sunset Concerts have become one of Cape Town's most anticipated outdoor music events and we would like to thank all the attendees for spending their Sundays with us and making our shows such a success. The 2020/21 season promises to be as dynamic as this past summer and we look forward to kicking it off in November,” concluded Sarah Struys, events and tourism manager for Kirstenbosch Summer Sunset Concerts.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>