

Goldfish, Goodluck and more to perform in Red Cross Children's Hospital's free online benefit concert

Local musicians and comedians will be performing at Red Cross Children's Hospital's free online benefit concert on Sunday, 13 December 2020.

“This year we have been overwhelmed by the kindness and compassion of our loyal supporters. As a gesture of thanks and to help bring some festive spirit, we have partnered with a group of generous artists to bring you a free online benefit concert featuring some of the best local music and comedy acts,” Chantel Cooper, CEO of the Children’s Hospital Trust

The lineup includes Goldfish, Tumi Morake, Goodluck, Jesse Clegg and Yaaseen Barnes as well as Maurice Carpede, who will act as the MC.

“Our heartfelt and sincere appreciation extends to each and every one of our loyal supporters for the ongoing and continued support,” concluded the statement.

The free concert will be held on the 13 December 2020 at 4pm and can be accessed here.
