

Emperors Palace celebrates 15 years

In celebration of its 15th birthday celebrations, Emperors Palace continues to offer Las Vegas style entertainment for the young and old.

Rocking the Ages!

The show, guaranteed to strike the perfect chord for an evening filled with musical rhapsody, is now being performed in 64 Live in the Entertainment Emporium. Tickets are R140 per person and can be purchased at the door. Winners Circle discounts apply, and no under-12s will be permitted.

Sexy Magic

An exciting comedy magic show for the ladies presented by illusionist Vicus Cruywagen has been running from 16 October. Hilarious magic routines will ensure an unforgettable rollercoaster ride into a world of unique magic. The show will be performed every Wednesday in the Odeon Showbar at 8pm. Tickets are R50 per lady and can be purchased at the door. No under-18s permitted, and entry for men is from 9pm.

Duelling Pianos

Multiple award winners Emile Minnie and Godfrey Johnson will present Duelling Pianos at the Odeon Showbar from 1 November. Duelling Pianos is perfect for special occasions or a group of friends looking for an entertaining night out. The interactive show is also ideal for corporate year-end functions as it encourages audience participation. The show will be performed at 8pm on Fridays and Saturdays until 28 December. Tickets are R40 per person and can be purchased at the door. No under-18s permitted.

Morning Melodies

Brought to audiences by the Duelling Piano's creators, Emile and Godfrey. From 5 November, the duo will kick-start your day with a programme of comedic and musical virtuosity. With clicking fingers and tapping feet, these versatile artists will amuse and entertain audience members with original songs and the work of Piaf, Coward, Lehrer and many more. The show will be performed in the Odeon Showbar at 11am from Mondays to Fridays. Tickets are R40 per person and can be purchased at the door.

Disco Sixties to Naughties

Emile and Godfrey will also be joining forces to bring audiences an evening of fun, humour and fabulous songs in Disco Sixties to Naughties. The duo will perform raucous hits from the 1960s to the Naughties with just a piano, a clarinet and a wine glass for percussion. The show will be performed at 8pm every Thursday from 7 November in the Odeon Showbar. Tickets are R40 per person and can be purchased at the door. No under-18s permitted.

That's So Great

Comedy heavyweight, Tola$$ Mo will return to his roots to launch his one man show, That's So Great on 20 and 21 November. The show will showcase Mo's life's story where he will focus on psychoanalysing his growing success juxtaposed against his township upbringing. The show will be performed in the Theatre of Marcellus at 8.30pm and tickets are R150 per person.

Take Me To The Dance

Freshlyground will bring their infectious grooves to the Theatre of Marcellus for the first time for two shows only on 30 November and on World Aids Day, 1 December. The group will perform their greatest hits and songs from their latest album, "Take Me To The Dance". Tickets start from R175 per person. Dinner, show and stay packages are available.

The IBO Super Middleweight World Title

The Fighting Force boxing tournament in the Centre Court on 9 November will provide an evening of boxing action with Thomas Tommy Gun Oosthuizen headlining the bill against Ezequiel Maderna for the IBO Super Middleweight World Title. The tournament will start at 7.30pm and tickets are priced from R275 per person.

Garden of Lights

The Garden of Lights will kick-start the Festive Season from 6 December in the beautiful garden at the D'Oreale Grande Hotel. This wonderland will comprise fairy lights, light displays, music and Christmas characters will provide a fun and entertaining outing for the entire family. The garden will be open daily from 7pm, weather permitting and entry is free.

Alison Moyet

Iconic 1980s diva Alison Moyet will perform in the Centre Court for the first time to celebrate Emperors Palace's 15th birthday weekend on 13 and 14 December. The two concerts will feature the very best of the blues voiced superstar and the hits from her electro-pop 80s' band, Yazoo.
