

The Entertainer - Taste of Cape Town

Janez Vermeiren and girlfriend, Juliana Vasconcelos visited The Entertainer's stand on Saturday evening, 13 April 2013.

Janez Vermeiren was also one of The Entertainer's committee members who was tasked to use as many of the 500 two-for-one offerings in The Entertainer from January to March 2013 to give consumers a taste of what the book has to offer.

The Entertainer, that launched in South Africa in January 2013, has exposed South African consumers to a revolutionary model of two-for-one incentive benefits.

Established in 2001 by Donna Benton, the international Dubai based company boasts 21 books across 14 destinations and 11 countries. At just R450 for the book and 450 two-for-one offerings, consumers will be able to experience some of the best restaurants, cafes, nightspots, attractions, spas and hotel accommodation in Cape Town.
