

Bakwena appoints new commercial manager

Bakwena Platinum Corridor Concessionaire appointed Solomon Kganyago as its new commercial manager.

Kganyago brings with him overall 17 years of work experience, dedicating 11 of those years to his time at the South African National Roads Agency SOC Limited (Sanral) where his last position was deputy regional manager.

His plans to advance the concessionaire's long-term strategic goals to deliver a relevant commercial strategy, which includes transformation, stakeholder management and corporate social investment.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>