

Last chance to apply for an Allan Gray Orbis Foundation Scholarship

The deadline to apply for the Allan Gray Orbis Foundation Scholarship is fast approaching. Applications close on 13 September 2013. This scholarship is open to current Grade 6 learners who will start Grade 8 in 2015.

Following the application cut-off, there will be a rigorous selection process where candidates will be selected based on the following criteria:

- Personal traits: Must demonstrate courage, leadership, vision and self-knowledge. The applicants must also display a track record in excellence, creativity and innovation.
- Academic requirements: Applicants must achieve 70% or higher in Mathematics and English.
- The applicant has to demonstrate financial need and be a South African citizen.

Those who successfully complete this phase will be interviewed and the most deserving candidates will be invited to attend one of the Foundation's Selection Camps - the final stage of the selection process.

The Foundation aims to promote progress in southern Africa by developing high-impact responsible entrepreneurs. Its scholarship programme is one of many avenues through which they identify and nurture future leaders who can make a valuable difference to the societal fabric of southern Africa.

Visit www.allangrayorbis.org to find out more information and to download an application form.

Read the full article here.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>