

Arup Education Trust achieves a 91% pass rate for 2017

The Arup Education Trust (AET) has announced that its students have achieved a 91% pass rate across all its courses for 2017.

Furthermore, six AET bursary beneficiaries successfully graduated in 2017 and 23 students passed with distinction.

AET was launched in 2011 with a mission to enhance the lives of disadvantaged learners through education.
