

Norval Foundation appoints media entrepreneur Carol Bouwer

The Norval Foundation has appointed Carol Bouwer to its board of trustees. She joins the board that includes Nonkululeko Nyembezi, Louis Norval, Steve Kettle, Mareli Voster, Gary Vogelman, Karel Nel and Elana Brundyn.

Bouwer said the following on her appointment:

“ I am deeply honoured to be a part of Louis Norval's vision to create a proud nation that celebrates its culture and diversity in a manner that embraces all facets of who we are - and in a manner that encourages nation-building and positive diversity. ”

Bouwer is a South African television presenter, producer and production company owner best known for hosting and later producing the SABC talk show Motswako: The Mix.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>