

AWCape appoints new managing director

AWCape has announced the appointment of Jeff Ryan as managing director, while Henri Hattingh founder and former CEO of AWCape becomes executive chairman of the group. The changes are part of the group's strategy to accelerate growth and position itself as a key business partner for companies accelerating their digital transformation in the wake of the pandemic.

Ryan has more than 20 years of industry experience and a keen understanding of how software helps businesses grow and become more efficient.
