

New regional president for TransUnion

Information solutions provider, TransUnion, has appointed Lee Naik as its new regional president of operations for Africa. Naik will be tasked with increasing TransUnion's ability to deliver innovative solutions to the African market and to grow the company's range of information solutions. Naik was previously managing director for Accenture Digital in sub-Saharan Africa.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>