

The Mhondoro Safari Lodge & Villa 2 new general managers

Jaces and Althi Bornman, a husband and wife duo, have been appointed as the new general managers of Mhondoro Safari Lodge & Villa. They have extensive experience in the safari industry, having met while working as field guides at Madikwe Hills.

Althi Bornman has a deep passion for nature and wildlife. She spent several years of her adolescence in the rainforests of Sierra Leone. She completed various training courses in guiding, tracking and wildlife management. She shares her passion for the luxury hospitality industry with her team and guests.

Jaces Bornman has more than 10 years of experience as a field guide. He has also worked as a financial advisor and lodge manager. He is fluent in sign language and has developed unique observation and communication skills.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>