

Nuy Winery appoints Christo Basson as its new cellar master

Christo Basson has been appointed cellar master at Nuy Winery.

Basson began his career in the industry at DTK Wines in Rawsonville in 2002. Over a decade ago, he joined the team at TCB Wines as winemaker/cellar master. In 2019, Basson took up the position as winemaker at Lutzville Vineyards in the West Coast region, where he earned several esteemed awards for his exceptional winemaking skills.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>