The second series of loveLife's Foxy Chix launched yesterday 30 July 2012 on YFM (99.2 FM) and DStv (channel 159) from Monday to Wednesday at 4.45pm, with an omnibus on Thursdays at 3.30pm. The series celebrates the power of female friendship, while offering a platform for young people around the country to express their views, be in control of their destinies and make the best choices. There are a number of factors putting girls and young women at increased risk of HIV, which the programme explores, to empower its listeners.
