

Lyndon Johnstone appointed LM Radio head of operations

LM Radio has appointed seasoned radio executive Lyndon Johnstone as its new head of operations. One of Johnstone's responsibilities will be to manage strategic agency partnerships as well as the station's day-to-day business.

He has over 35 years in the media and broadcast industry having worked at the SABC, OFM, KayaFM, and he was most recently the CEO at Classic1027. Dayne Allenbrook, LM Radio executive director, commented on Johnstone's appointment: "We are looking to build on the strong foundation and look forward to Lyndon's contribution and leadership."

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>