

Maistry moving on to Metro FM

Mid-morning radio show host Kenny Maistry will be leaving 94.7 Highveld Stereo for Metro FM at the end of March 2009, it was announced late on Friday afternoon, 20 March. Mark Pilgrim will be presenting the show until a permanent presenter has been identified.

DJ Kenny Maistry

Maistry, who currently hosts the 9am - 12noon show weekdays with the popular Time Tunnel feature, has been at 94.7 for the past seven years.

"Kenny has been the driving force behind the success of Time Tunnel, which he originally launched. He has always been a pleasure to work with. We wish him all the best in his future endeavors," said Ravi Naidoo, 94.7 Highveld Stereo station manager.

Commented Maistry, "The past seven years have been an awesome learning experience, plus I have grown so much as a broadcaster and a person.

"I would like to thank Ravi Naidoo and CEO Terry Volkwyn for affording me the opportunity to be part of the dynamic and professional team at 94.7 Highveld Stereo."

Pilgrim currently presents Take 40 SA on Saturdays at 10am - 2pm, which is syndicated on sister radio station 94.5 Kfm in Cape Town.

For more:

- Sunday Times: DJ Maistry bids fond farewell to Highveld

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>