

Radio 2000, Good Hope, Motsweding lineups for April

Radio 2000, Good Hope FM and Motsweding FM have announced various lineup changes commencing Friday, 1 April 2011. Coinciding with the launch of its site, Radio 2000 adds new people to automated slots; Good Hope continues its strategy to develop and promote young on-air talent; and Motsweding's "new lineup, innovative segments and packed imaging" reflects the station's new strategy of attracting audiences who were not necessarily touched by it. Motsweding FM

The new on-air presenters are indicated by * and these changes will become effective at midnight on Thursday 31 March.

"These imminent changes are necessary because they reflect the ever-changing landscape and the era of digitelia in the radio industry," says Motsweding FM station manager Sibongile Mtyali. "We are looking at on-air personalities who can coin the term 'triple act' on radio: production, creativity and delivering public value."

"The new lineup, innovative segments and packed imaging will reflect the station's new strategy of attracting audiences who were not necessarily touched by Motsweding FM. We will serve the hip-hop community [and] speak to new age listeners, while retaining our programming content that will resonate with the listeners of the station."
