

SA's first female tracker is at Samara Private Game Reserve

Following her appointment at the Samara Private Game Reserve, Justa Frans has become the first formally accredited female tracker in South Africa. She completed her level three tracking qualification at the Tracker Academy following her training in nature and culture site guiding.

She is currently serving as a tracker intern at Samara.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>