

Mining Elites in Africa nomination deadline extended

Mining Review Africa has decided to extend the nomination deadline for its Mining Elites in Africa recognition of excellence project to Friday, 11 August 2017.

This is also an opportunity to have your nomination reviewed by the company's mining expert advisory board, who between them have extensive knowledge of the mining industry in Africa.

Advisory board:

- Keith Scott – chairman of African-focused mining consulting group The MSA Group, acting CEO of Fraser Alexander Group and founding member of the Joburg Indaba.
- Marcus Courage – CEO of Africappractice – a risk, strategy and communications consultancy specialising in mining in Africa and co-founder of Africa Investor magazine.
- Roger Dixon – Corporate consultant at SRK Consulting, and one of the most respected mining authorities in Africa.
- Emmanuelle Nicholls – events director for DRC Mining Week, Nigeria Mining Week, and Kenya Mining Forum.
