Powered by Fetola, the programme offers two years of practical, professional support; access to markets and master mentors; applied business-skills workshops; and qualified investment-readiness support. High business growth, positive job creation and long-term improvement in business success rates are just some of the benefits for participants.

The programme is looking to support women, the youth and those living in rural and peri-urban areas, as well as those working in new or growing sectors such as export, manufacturing, food processing, water, energy and waste management. Entrepreneurs with disability are strongly encouraged to apply.

Applications are open until 30 November 2018. Follow this link to apply - SAB Foundation Tholoana Programme. Email SAB@fetola.co.za or call 080 0611 095 (toll-free) for more information.
