

Telkom appoints Dirk Reyneke as its new CFO

Tech Central reports that Dirk Reyneke has been named Telkom's new CFO. He replaces Tsholofelo Molefe, who resigned in December 2020 to join MTN in the same position.

Image source: Tech Central | Dirk Reyneke

A Business Day report mentions that Reyneke has been with Telkom for nearly a decade, having previously been CFO at its subsidiaries, Gyro, the group's property arm; and Openserve, the infrastructure unit.

Telkom also announced changes to its board structures and committees. This includes Kholeka Mzondeki being appointed chair of the group's social and ethics committee and stepping down from the investment and transactions committee.

Lastly, Alphonzo Samuels - a former CEO of Openserve - has been named to the social and ethics committee and the investment and transactions committee.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>