

Leadership's August issue salutes women

Leadership magazine has just brought out a bumper edition for Women's Month.

"We are proud of the high calibre content that providing insight and intelligence on a range of business and other topics, as well as interviews with leaders who are defining the world around us," says editor, David Capel. "We share Minister Susan Shabangu's insights on empowering women in this edition and focus on women entrepreneurs making great strides in Africa. We also look forward to sharing thoughts from Mignon du Preez, South Africa's women's cricket captain, on her outstanding achievements in the game and the future of women's cricket in South Africa."
